

You are cordially invited to attend our next event:

“Birding in Panama”
by Simon Peile (1979F) and Mike Buckham

On Thursday 2nd February 2017

At The Mitre, Bishops

19H30

Cost: R100

Simon is a keen world birder, with a world life list approaching 3 500. He has two sons, Alexander matriculated in 2016 and is now an OD and Nicholas is in Grade 11 this year. Mike is one of South Africa’s leading birders and is a new college parent.

Simon and Mike recently embarked on a two week birding trip to Panama, familiarising themselves with the avifauna of the country and seeking out rare species.

The talk will cover Panama as a birding destination and will be illustrated with some of Mike’s excellent photographs.
